

Privacy Policy

- We are keen on confidentiality of information and data registered in this system by permit seekers and the disclosure of this data exposes us to legal accountability according to Article 201 of the Omani Penal Code and Article 16 of the law to combat information technology crimes.
- The circulation of this information that the security system contains, whether directly or indirectly or for those who are not authorized to do so, also attends to the security caveats in the system that guarantee your security declaration on understanding the laws and regulations when applying for any kind of different types of permits.
- We have the right to obtain your personal data such as the triple name, the tribe, the position, as well as the current section in which you work and the profession from the manpower system in order to complete and facilitate the process of applying for any permit, as well as for the reliability and credibility of the data.
- Your request will go through several stages and several delegates in order to successfully complete the process of obtaining a permit and ensure that your personal and family data is preserved.
- You can delete your permit before the security commissioner for your base and department deals with it, and you can also see the current stage your permit is going through and the person authorized to process it.
- You can comment and express your opinion if your permit is rejected by the authorized persons, and you must follow their instructions and comments if they request more documents and information in order to complete the process of obtaining your permit.
- When the status of your application changes from in progress to confirmed, you are kindly requested to contact the permits department of your base in order to print it and obtain the permit.
- You should read and acknowledge all security caveats for your base when applying for any type of permit.

- In case you lose your permit, please inform the ground security and defense wing of your base.
- In case of losing the permit, you will have to pay a fine of 5 R.O.
- The information in this system is confidential and should not be circulated in any way.
